CANADIAN ART EXHIBIT IN LIBRARY

An exhibit featuring a variety of styles of drawing by Canadian artists covering a 10 year period is currently on display in the Shelton State library. The exhibit may be viewed from 8 a.m. - 10 p.m. Monday through Thursday and from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Friday.

The exhibit, "Time to Draw," was organized and made available for tour by the Cultural Affairs Division of the Department of External Affairs of Canada.

JOHNSON TO REPRESENT SHELTON STATE IN MISS ALABAMA PAGEANT

Shannon Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Foster Johnson of Tuscaloosa and second runner-up in the Miss Shelton State Pageant, will represent Shelton State in the Miss Alabama Pageant as Kim Rust has resigned. Johnson is a ballerina and will perform her talent on Friday, June 11. Anyone who would like to order tickets to the pageant should contact Lucy Kubiszyn, Sandra Day, or Judy Barker.

AFRO AMERICAN CULTURAL ASSOCIATION DAY

On Tuesday, May 25, the Afro American Cultural Association will launch its membership campaign for the new year. Tables will be set up in the building and if you are interested in joining this group, please stop by. You may contact any member of the Afro American Cultural Association as they will be wearing red T-shirts with A² CA lettering.

Their goal is 25 new members for the new year. And, according to Bessie German, they would appreciate any referrals.

SHELTON SIGNS WOMEN SOFTBALL PLAYERS

Three top athletes from Marengo Academy, three-time Alabama private school champions, will attend Shelton State next year on softball scholarships, according to Steve King, women's softball coach.

Rita Jo Johnson, Lori Westbrook, and Diana Tarten, inked two-year grant-in aids recently with Shelton State Community College. All three girls were instrumental in leading Marengo Academy to a 66 winning -game championship.

The signing of Mss. Johnson, Westbrook and Parten brings to five the number of players signed by Shelton State. Westbrook has been outstanding by pitching Marengo to 68 straight victories over three years. Mary Anne Hannah of West End Christian, Tuscaloosa, and Donna Roberts, West Blocton High School, previously signed scholarships with the college.

"The five we have signed are not only fine athletes who will contribute to our softball program but are fine young ladies as well," King said. "They along with the players returning should provide us with exciting play, sportsmanship, and WINS."

Shelton State will participate in Tuscaloosa's womens independent fall league and play its usual college schedule next spring.

PUNCH AND JUDY PRESENTS "WINNIE THE POOH"

The Punch and Judy Players and Shelton State Community College will present the production of "Winnie the Pooh" on Saturday, June 5, at 10 a.m. and 6 p.m. in the Shelton State auditorium. Susan Brown is the director, Joanne Rossomanno, assistant, and Jeanna Lankford, stage manager.

The play is a direct spin-off of the acting classes that have been held at Shelton State this spring and will be the first time that a play made up entirely of young children as performers will be held in Tuscaloosa.

Children in the cast include: Bert Hughes, Ben Boles, Norvin Richards, Krissie Kubiszyn, Heidi Umphrey, Kari Kubiszyn, Mary Beth Richey, Angela Rossomanno, Julie Noble, Jennifer Stuart, Renea Richardson, Mary Kate Cochran, Bo Jones, Jenny Noble, Genny Richards, Melinda Allen, Dot Brown, Nikkie Evans, Stacey Carlson, Lila Bankson, Elizabeth Davidson, Libby Umphrey, Aisha Brown, and Claire Minges.

WINNERS OF ART CONTEST ANNOUNCED

Shelton State's fourth annual art scholarship and exhibition competition for area junior and senior high school students was held recently.

Suzanne Hoggle of Tuscaloosa County High School was awarded a full tuition art scholarship for one year to Shelton State Community College. Hoggle is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Don Hoggle, Northport.

Winners in the senior high division were: Missy Miller, Tuscaloosa County High, first place; Rodrick Humphrey, Central High East, second place; James Stephen, Central High East, third place; Darryl Bonner, Central High East, fourth place.

Steve Gray of Tuscaloosa Middle School took first place honors in the junior high division. Other junior winners were: Xavira Neggers, Central High West, second place; Darron Thomas, Riverside Junior High, third place; Will Davis, Riverside Junior High, fourth place.

Judging for the contest was by Richard Zoellner, professor Emeritus of art, University of Alabama. The show was under the direction of Shelton State faculty member, Dr. Bethany Engle.

NEWS AROUND SHELTON STATE

Since this will be the last issue of the MONDAY REPORT until June, I would like to take this opportunity to wish all of you a happy vacation. We hope to see many of you back next year.
